A STANDARD HISTORY BY

GEN. LEE.

A Work of National and Permanent Value.

MEMOIRS OF THE WAR,

By Gen. Henry Lee.

("LIGHT HORSE HARRY")

Thoroughly Revised and Annotated,

BY GEN. ROBERT E. LEE,

WHO HAS ADDED A FULL BIOGRAPHY OF HIS FATHER.

1 vol. octavo, 640 pages, with new Steel Portraits of Gen. Henry Lee, Gen. Robert E. Lee, and Gen. Nathaniel Greene; beautiful Steel Engravings of "Marion's rousing the Police," and the "Surrender of Cornwallis;" Maps of the Siege of Charleston, S. C.; the siege of Yorktown, Va.; the Battle fought near Camden; the Battle of Guilford; the Battle of Hobkirk's Hill; and a sketch of Gen. Henry Lee's residence.

This admirable history of the operations of the American Armies during the Revolutionary War in the Southern Department of the United States, is the standard work on the subject of which it treats; and this new edition, revised, corrected, and enlarged by Gen. Robert E. Lee, the distinguished son of the author, and embellished by elegant Engravings, & c original Maps never before published, is a volume of the highest value to every intelligent person.

This history has been for a long time out of print, and because of its accuracy as a history of that interesting period and that there was no work to supply its place, it was much sought for and a new edition demanded.

It is seldom that a historical work by a distinguished author has the advantage of a revision by so distinguished a son, and both of them great military leaders in the same section of the country.

Gen. Lee receives a LARGE COPYRIGHT UPON EVERY COPY OF THE BOOK SOLD. Sold only by subscription.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1869.

THE VICE OF LYING.

A few words more upon the common vice of the times, and especially the common vice of the Holden administration, and we shall dismiss the subject, not to be recurred to again, unless some member of the administration shall, Starbuck like, add perjury to his lying.

The Governor, we are aware, looks upon Starbuck's perjury, not as a perjury and foul crime, but as an act of expediency.

Lying is known by a variety of genteel, gentle names. Kings call it "king craft." King James thought, without the art of lying, kings were not worthy to reign. It was this "king craft" that brought his son Charles to the block; at least some authors say so.

Sir Henry Wolton, (himself an ambassador,) defined an ambassador to be "an honest man sent abroad to lie for the good of his country." Napoleon and Thomas Jefferson have both been charged with using "king craft."

Jefferson was charged by John Adams, Chief Justice Marshall, and light-horse Harry Lee, with using "king craft" in a most extravagant manner. Lord Bacon was of opinion that lying, like alloy in metals, was a "debasement, but good for the working."

The use of this alloy degraded and disgraced his lordship, and made him about equal to Governor Holden, in the estimation of all lovers of truth and honesty.

The Northern political preachers, who have been vomited upon the South, by the nausea and upheavings of the national stomach, call lying "mental reservation." One of these political labourers in the devil's vineyard, and in the League, the Rev. Caulis, lived for awhile about Edenton; he made himself obnoxious, to the good people of that region, and moved to Franklin. A short stay there made him as obnoxious as he had been at Edenton, and being threatened with violence, he left, and located about Mebanesville, preaching and teaching.

In order, as Mr. Calhoun would say, to "force the issue," on a blessed Sunday morning, when the good people of the Hawfields were assembled for Divine worship, the Reverend Caulis, not having the love of God in his heart, but intent on forcing political issues of the League on the congregation, walked into Church with negroes, compelling them to take seats with him in the body of the Church, and by his side with the whites. An elder of the Church notified his colored companions that the place for colored people was in another portion of the Church, at the same time, he spoke a welcome to Pilgrim Ashley's politico-gospel brother, and told him he was welcome in the Church, if he came to join the congregation in worship; if he came to insult them, it were better that he had not come. Pilgrim's brother Caulis left the Church, and the neighborhood too. He then squatted at the Company Shops, where the loyal Billy could blow his horn, if the devil or the Ku Klux should come for him. The Ku Klux did come, and in the hearing of Billy's horn, gave Ashley's brother Caulis many lashes, and blacked him as black as the negroes who sat by him in Church. This pious laborer in the League was notified to leave in ten days, or they would hang him. The Governor was appealed to, United States troops were sent by the President or ex President of the League to protect the pious Caulis, but Caulis left on the ninth day. Dr. Moore was called in to dress his wounds, and now peace reigns at the Shops as well as in Warsaw.

This was a collision of the Leagues and Ku Klux; the conduct of neither, is to be justified. We condemn both. Even James Harris, the colored statesman of the Metropolis, can't justify the conduct of Caulis, for James denies that he is for the social equality of the races. Dr. Grissom cannot justify it, for he refused to sit at table with Howe at the Asylum.

Now we know the straights to which these pious, political preachers, like Caulis, Ashely, and Whitson, are reduced. Ashley in the political ring with Littlefield, Laflin and Tourgee, would stand no chance of promotion, if he were not allowed to use "mental reservation" against their "King Craft."

This pious divine from Buzzard's Bay, and known as "the old Pilgrim," can shake Starbuck by the hand with as much complaisancy as the Governor can take a drink when the gay and festive Josephs treats at Pepper's; yet he knows Starbuck must have sworn falsely when he took the test oath. He is a special friend of Littlefield's; yet the Rutherford Star, a Republican paper, calls him "Milton Swindler Littlefield."

Pilgrim Ashley, quit your preaching or your politics, and speak without "mental reservation."

A resolution has been introduced in the Senate requesting Governor HOLDEN to remove WM. A. SMITH, President of the North Carolina Railroad. Why not include MILTON SWINDLER LITTLEFIELD, ANDREW JACKSON JONES and WILLIAM (M. S.) SLOAN?—Rutherford Star.

A SWEET AFFAIR.

Neither the present Legislature, nor the batch of State officers, big and little, were elected by the entire body of voters, who, by the constitution of the State, are permitted to vote for members of the Legislature and State officers. To be more plain: The Convention which framed the present constitution was composed of delegates elected by only that portion of the freemen of the State, allowed the franchise of the ballot by the reconstruction acts—a large portion of the freemen of the State having no voice in the matter.

The Convention thus composed, met and framed a constitution—such a thing as it is—in which constitution certain State officers, and a certain number of Senators and Representatives are provided for, to constitute the departments of the State Government; but these are to be elected, according to the provisions of this very constitution, by all the freemen of the State.

As every one knows, the constitution was submitted for ratification or rejection to the limited class of voters, allowed by the reconstruction acts, who voted for the delegates who framed it.

To all this we raise no scruple, but here is the point. The Constitution provides for certain officers, as we have said, to be elected by all the freemen of the State.—But the present corps of State officials were not so elected, but were elected by the limited class prescribed in the reconstruction acts. At least twenty-five or thirty thousand voters of the State—male voters by the Constitution—were debarred, by the arbitrary action of the Convention, from voting for officers claiming to have been elected under the Constitution.

To a certain extent, therefore, we say, the acts of these officers are vitiated.—Whether this point will ever be raised hereafter, to set aside any of the acts of the present State officials, especially those of the Legislature, is a question for future discussion. We have nothing to say in regard to it now.

We say that the members of the present General Assembly were not elected by the entire body of the constitutional voters of the State, and present the fact as a strong reason why their term of office should close on the first Thursday in August next, even if there were no express provision in the Constitution to that effect.

To hold beyond that time would be a double fraud upon the people. The people understood that there was to be a new election at that time, and if there was a different idea entertained by any, it was confined to a very few, and that few were careful and cautious to conceal their views and intentions from the public.

That there were some who were secretly plotting for a four years tenure of the Legislature, recent developements seem to show; and these developements, we must say, exhibit a degree of political dishonesty and mean wire working that deserve the most thorough condemnation of every honest man, no matter to what political party he may belong. We allude to the recent developements, going the round of the papers, a full understanding of which may be gathered from the following extract from the Winston Sentinel, of a recent date:

"W. H. S. Sweet, the Senator from the 10th District, and was also a member of the Convention, offered a resolution in the Senate, proposing to refer the matter of the tenure of office of the present Legislature to the Supreme Court for their decision.—In his remarks when presenting the resolution, that when framing that section he thought it intended only for the Legislature to hold over from April, the time they were elected until August 1868, at which time their regular session would commence.

This was all very pretty talk, but Judge Tourgee, who was Chairman of the Committee which framed the Legislative article, stated on the train as he was going from Raleigh to Greensboro, on Thursday evening, Nov. 25th, that Sweet knowingly misrepresented the whole affair before the Legislature. He stated that he had a section drawn up expressly stating that the Legislature should hold over four years and four months, and that he showed it to Heaton and Sweet, who were sitting one on each side of him, and that Heaton who was a Guild man, objected, saying that if it was put in that way it would defeat the Constitution, and that Sweet agreed with him, and that they went behind the Speaker's desk and consulted, and that he drew up the present section, so worded as to mislead the people as to its meaning and intent. He said that Sweet and Heaton were both delighted at the manner in which he had succeeded in their object, and that Sweet was not only knowing to it, but a party to it.

This statement of Judge Tourgee, which was made to two responsible gentlemen, and not in a confidential manner, but publicly, places Mr. Sweet in rather an awkward position. He has either told a falsehood to the Senate, and is a party to the fraud and usurpation now about to be practiced upon the people of North Carolina or Judge Tourgee has told a falsehood on him.

Mr. Sweet knows whether Tourgee told the truth or not, and he has the power, if innocent, to clear himself of the charge."

The above, which we think bears the impress of truth upon its very face, shows up Senator Sweet in a most unenviable light; and it devolves upon him to extricate himself from the position in which it places him, or to bear the odium justly due to such dishonest double-dealing and political fraud. The facts above, have been published for over two weeks, and we have looked for some reply from the Senator from Craven, but hitherto, in vain. He cannot skulk behind a dignified silence on the subject. Judge Tourgee has publicly declared the facts, and Mr. Sweet must either disprove them or stand convicted of actions and professions that an honest man would blush to be charged with.

If the facts be as stated, that there was even in the convention, a settled and covert scheme and plan to deceive the people and perpetuate the tenure to ill gotten power, by the Radical party, it is but another and a stronger reason for the people to arise in their power and show the miserable schemers that they will not be thus imposed upon.

RUMORED REMOVAL.—The Goldsboro Messenger says: "It is rumored upon our streets that Mr. C. L. Estes, assistant assessor U. S. internal revenue, at this point, has been removed and Mr. R. M. Cohen appointed in his stead."

THE RUTHERFORD STAR VS. HOLDEN, ET AL.

The Star boasts that he was born in the Republican faith. It strikes us that the Republican party was born after the Editor, The Star, charges the Governor with disorganizing the Republican party, and, breaking down Andrew Johnson's administration. He charges him with conniving at the speculation, which has ruined the bonds and credit of the State. The Governor is denounced for appointing Dr. Sloan, President of a Railroad. The Star says, Dr. Sloan is "a man totally unfit to fill any place of trust and profit, and a man that does not possess the confidence of any class of people except such as himself." 'Other appointments just as bad have been made by the Governor, who is responsible for the present unstable condition of the State, and the disorganized condition of the party. Our party must be controled by honest men, who will add strength and not detract from the party. We cannot follow Governor Holden. We will not follow the Standard. We will oppose any man, and all men who endorse, or favor the policy of Governor Holden."

Too late Mr. Star, too late, you knew as much about Governor Holden when you voted for him as you do now, just as he begins to improve, you desert him. He deals less in "King Craft" and mental reservation, than when you voted for him; he is less frequent in his visits to the grog shops, than when you voted for him. The party has no man so suitable for Governor. So shine on him, Star.

The following is the article alluded to by A. H. Galloway, in the Senate, on Thursday, in his remarks on a "question of privilege:"

[From the Hill boro' Recorder.]
[COMMUNICATED.]

Galloway, the colored Senator from New Hanover county, now a resident of Newbern, Craven county, N. C., offered, a few days since, a resolution instructing the Governor to remove Maj. W. A. Smith, President of the N. C. R. R., from that position on said Road. The "Irish" of this saddle colored Senator, we learn, was gotten up from the fact of a conductor on the N. C. Road refusing to allow him to occupy a seat in the first class coach, when the said Senator had on exhibition a second class ticket.

This "Roaster," Galloway, is a nuisance on railroads, insulting in his deportment and obnoxious to passengers on account of his scent from regularity of imbibing Tangle Foot and Pop Skull. But with all the foregoing, Galloway is a gentleman in comparison to those who backed and put him forward in this matter.

Old man Burns—

"That good old man we hope we won't see more,
He always wears that same old coat that you've heard of before"— a 2nd edition of the—Cardiff Giant, a real "putty" man wears No. 15 shoes, the hollow of them making a hole in Chatham co., where he lives—wants Maj. Smith removed because he, Gulliver, has a son who holds a position on the said Road which he has shown himself utterly incompetent to fill; and Gulliver, No. 1, is fearful that little Gulliver, will be discharged. The machinery of this road I understand is fast declining owing to the fact of Mr. Burns' incompetency as Master Machinist.

Then Mr. Albert Johnson, a good old man—by birth a Poet—who tells in rhyme of

"Snags and Rags and ugly looking scalawags."
Who brings old Engines up to life
And stands in dreadful fear of wife—

He, unfit for the position he holds, dislikes the way that Maj. Smith holds the reins and has his sweet son in-law, Mr. Bellyme, to do all he can to get the Maj. out of his way. But Mr. Bellyme is too weak a shrub to do much, as he has no force in the Legislature and is a piece of the stuff that was thrown on the top of the pot by the colored people of Edgecombe—entirely through mistake—they will do considerably better however next time. Colgrove from "to hum" is a "tale" carpet bagger, with one shirt, one pair of old socks and a dirty paper collar; don't carry a handkerchief and never had one, flew to Raleigh all the way from Jones county—which county he is adopting—the colored citizens are very anxious to have another vote at him next summer, when his "goose will be cooked." Next comes Moore of Carteret and Davis of Montgomery—perfect gentlemen of their kind, (poor kind,) hold a half dozen offices, have no particular home and represents the State at large in the Legislature; both I hear, belong to the Temperance Society and are strong and undying friends of Senator Galloway, who tells them how to vote. Mr. Etheridge we don't know unless he is the little fellow that sits up in the corner and looks like a possum, when he is punched in the ribs. In the House of Commons we have Stephens, the miller and dealer in Gent's Furnishing Goods—a greasy looking cuss, upon whom a fly would not light.—And then comes a long lank lean gaunt fellow by the name of Harris from Franklin who was appointed mail carrier on the North Carolina Railroad but was incompetent. The same fellow who his colleague, Mr. Williamson, from Franklin, (a colored man but a true colored gentleman and friend to his race,) said that he, (Harris,) tried to vote at Charlotte while he pretended to represent Franklin county, now a nice specimen he is! Ought he not to hide for all the use he is to the good people of Franklin? The crows had better have his carcass. This is the lot who wish to rule North Carolina; this the set of ragamuffins and imbeciles who never had any position before and never will again; this is the class of men who wish to hold over contrary to the constitution of N. C. These are the men who would destroy the last vestige of liberty in our good old State; these are the small fry dictators who have been hoisted into place and power in our State. Away with such chaff! Give us another election and the men of North Carolina both white and colored, will wipe them out of political existence!

MILL ON CHINESE.—Excited to comment by an article in the New York Tribune, Mr. John Stuart Mill writes a letter on the subject of the introduction of Chinese into this country. His opinions are that their very great immigration here must so diminish wages as to reduce to a lower stage of physical comfort the population we have. Lowering labor in this way we cannot have, he thinks, any eventual effect of raising its price; and hence he argues that in such a case the exclusion of the immigrants would be justified, as but temporary good would be done to the overcrowded Chinese, and permanent harm to us. But there is a worse effect than this to be apprehended. It is from labor that the social and political life of the nation is replenished and re invigorated. If we trust labor to inferior races, how can that life be so replenished? It is a great mistake to seek such race to do our work. The nation that does it is making a great trouble for itself. That nation must ever be strongest and greatest whose laboring class belongs to the highest type of mankind.

The Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

THURSDAY, Dec. 16, 1869.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

A. B. Galloway (col.) arose to a question of privilege in reference to a communication which appeared in the Hillsboro' Recorder, which he considered was a reflection upon himself and other members of the General Assembly. This article he said was written by some unknown villain because he (Galloway) had introduced a resolution to have Bill Smith removed from the directorship of the N. C. R. R. The article stated that he (Galloway) was now a resident of Newbern, which was lie No. 1, as it was well known that he was a resident of the city of Wilmington, it also charged that he (Galloway) was a nuisance on railroads, and obnoxious to passengers on account of his scent from the regularity of imbibing Tangle Foot and Pop Skull.—He believed the article was written by Bill Smith President of the North Carolina R. R. who asserted in caucus several nights ago that he (Smith) was drunk when he made that Salisbury speech. I now publicly denounce W. A. Smith, (and I desire the reporters to notice it) as a liar, coward, scoundrel and poltroon.

Mr. Respass arose to a question of privilege in regard to some statements he had made in reference to the Sheriff of New Hanover county, he made these statements upon evidence he had received from the Public Treasurer, but from receipts which said Sheriff has in his possession, he was convinced that the Sheriff was disposed to act in an honorable manner.

On motion the House then adjourned.

ABSENCE OF MIND.—A well known gentleman of this city had occasion to pay a visit yesterday, to some lady friends residing on the suburbs. Our friend, being a civil engineer by profession, had been used to making his excursions on foot; but on this occasion, desiring to do honor to the fair recipients of his attentions, he borrowed or hired a horse, and rode out to see them in cavalier style. Now whether the beauty and brilliance of the ladies dazzled his eyes and confused his memory, we have no sure means of ascertaining; though we rather are inclined to confess that the splendor of even one lady's charms would have sufficed to make us equally forgetful Certain it is, our young friend came out from the presence of the ladies so much engrossed with his own pleasing fancies, that he forgot his steed, and walked back to town oblivious of all other means of conveyance than that specified in the legend of "William the Trumpeter," as his "ten toes." After reaching the city, and being reminded that he had'nt brought back the animal, our absent-minded hero sent out a colored person to secure it and return it to the owner.—Lynchburg Repub Learn.

WHY IS IT BEST TO INSURE IN THE BROOKLYN LIFE!

BECAUSE,

AMONG OTHER REASONS, IT IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN THE UNITED STATES WHICH PRESENTS THE GREAT FEATURE OF GUARANTEEING DEFINITE

CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

ALL POLICIES,

Are non-forfeitable after two full Annual Premiums have been paid.

The policy-holders of this Company may travel or reside where they choose—anywhere on the Globe.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company.

DIVIDENDS ARE PAID IN CASH,

or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy holder.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1869.

☞ Hereafter All obituaries not exceeding ten lines in length (eight words to the line), will be published free; for any number of lines over ten, ten cents per line will be charged — to be accompanied, in every instance, by the cash, to ensure publication.

☞ THOS. N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

DR. THOMAS H. TURNER having returned to his old home, offers his professional services to the citizens of Hillsboro and vicinity. 3w

THE REMAINS OF EX-GOVERNOR SWAIN, and those of his daughter, Annie, were brought to this city, yesterday, from Chapel Hill, by Mr. K. P. Waitt, undertaker, for the purpose of re-interment in the old city cemetery. There was no parade or public demonstration on the occasion; only the family and a few friends were present.—We learn that the lid of the coffins, over the faces were removed, when it was found that there were no such striking evidences of decay as might have been expected considering the length of time since they died. They were buried side by side, in the old cemetery.

MR. HARRIS OF FRANKLIN.—In the article copied in the SENTINEL, from the Hillsborough Recorder, an unjust allusion is made by the writer to Mr. Harris of Franklin. Mr. Harris is a Republican, but of that class of Republicans that command the respect, if not the approbation, of Conservatives and Democrats, for his independence in acting and voting as he believes to be right. At least this is the opinion his course in the Legislature has induced us to form of him.

Mr. Harris voted against the proposition to hold over until 1872, and also against the reference to the Supreme Court, believing that the Constitution absolutely requires a new election next summer; and knowing that the people never dreamed of electing members for a longer time.

"To Hon. O. H. Dockery, who was misled into appointing Sinclair, we appeal for his suppression, and as the holder of two offices, one under National and the other under the State Government, Sinclair is a subject for department beheading."—Wilmington Post.

That's right. And let the rule be followed up, and behead Bowman, Stilley, Wiley Jones, Renfrow, Door-keeper Ball, Brogden, and a number of others perhaps, who still insist on sucking two teats, while there are hundreds of hungry hopefuls, "as good by nature and perhaps better by grace," than they are, and who have suffered rain and sun, heat and cold (specially the cold, in which they are left out, to serve radicalism, that cannot poke their mugs in for a single drip. Truly may they cry out, "mammy, look here at Sinclair and the rest, they have sopped twice in the deep sop and we haint sopped nary time, even in the shallow."

Off with their heads, Mr. Post, and that quick, or there will be nothing left for the next farrow.

PAID BY THE ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE CO., through the hands of W. H. Crow, General Agent, for the State of N. C., and south of the James. Two policies upon the life of J. A. Moore, of Raleigh, No. 17,296, $10,000; No. 19,416, $5,000. This is but another illustration added to the many already made known to the public, of what this old and reliable Company is doing in our State.

The following note is appended by permission:

MR. CROW:—Please accept my thanks for your untiring energy and perseverance in procuring for myself and child, the amount due us, from your Company, also my appreciation of your promptness and kindness in our behalf.

Very Respectfully,

MRS. JAMES A. MOORE.

OYSTERS.—We are requested to say that R. H. Ruth, corner of Wilmington and Hargett streets, receives constantly, oysters from the Seaboard, of excellent quality, fat and fresh, which he supplies to customers at a reasonable price.

U. S. COURT—Thursday, Dec. 16.—Court met at 10, and proceeded to business by taking up the unfinished case of yesterday, viz: the case of Dewey, assignee, vs. Richardson, which, after much discussion, was continued until next term—a juror being withdrawn.

The case of Dewey, assignee, vs. W. C. McDuffie and others, was then called, Moore and Merrimon for plaintiff and McRae and Fuller for defendendants. Continued until next term.

The whole of the morning was consumed in the hearing of these cases but our limited space prevents us from giving in detail any of the points of law incident to the cases under debate. At 2 o'clock the Court took a recess until 4 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Court met pursuant to adjournment. No. 282 from the trial docket was called. State of North Carolina to the use of R. R Law, ex. E. A. Gupton and others. Mason, Lewis and Bragg for the Plaintiff; Rogers, Batchelor and Haywood for the Defendents. The whole evening was spent in hearing this case—which is continued until to-morrow. At 6 o'clock the Court adjourned.

The Postmaster General has issued stringent orders against the employment, in any part of the United States, of boys under sixteen years of age, or others not sworn, as mail messengers, to carry the mails between Post Offices and Railroad depots, or steamboat wharves.

CHRISTMAS IS COMING.—The grand array of Toys, candies, crackers &c., at the Confectioneries, the fine displays of everything good for the inner man, and the beautiful fabrics temptingly spread out by the Dry-Goods and fancy dealers, as well as the "gobbling" of fat turkey-cocks in front of the doors of the dealers in that sort of "live stock," all, all, declare that Christmas is coming, and foreshadow the good fat times that are coming with it.

Our country friends are coming in with carts and wagons groaning beneath the many good things of which they have a superfluity, and taking home with them lots of "store goods," besides a supply of "short sweetenin," for making up the Christmas "Inglish fixins."

Christmas is coming, and will be here to-morrow week.

Put on the night-cap and hang up the stocking For soon Santa Claus at the door will be knocking.

MOSELEY,

At Fentress' Corner, near the new Bank, has more good and pretty things than he ever had before.

Candies, Kisses, Figs, Raisins, Jellies, prunes, citrons, nuts, apples, oranges, and other fruits, candied fruits, pickles, conserves of all sorts; Toys without number, indeed, so many things that Santa Claus will have to make twenty trips to even take out samples of them all.

Little girls and little boys, youths and maidens, fathers and mothers, aunts and uncles, brothers and sisters, and every body else, are invited to come and look at my stock, whether they buy or not.

Fresh oysters every day.

MOSELEY.

Dec. 17.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—Did you ever see a small, poor horse, with two large men riding him, and a third trying to get up behind the two. If you have, you have some idea of the staggering of our tax payers

As taxes are increased property falls in price. And as property falls in price tax s must go higher on it. These things are plain to any one having two ideas.

The taxes have gone to that extent that every property holder is but a tenant paying rent and a high rent at that. No one in North Carolina is really the owner of the property in his possession. Every thing of value in the State is mortgaged to pay the debt, National and State and there is not near enough to discharge the mortgage. Let each man who fancies himself the owner of any thing, walk up and pay his fair share of the public debt, and it will take all his property, swallow it all up. Put the State into Bankruptcy and let her make that astonishing thing an honest surrender, and she cannot pay out, though every thing including chickens, ducks and turkeys, from Cherokee to Currituck be sold.

What are the facts. The land in North Carolina is poor. Northern labor nor captal is attracted here. They did not come much at any time and now, when taxation requires each man to eat a scanty breakfast, they do not come at all.

Our people are not skilled laborers. The great body of them barely make a support without paying the tax rent. How upon earth then can the people of North Carolina stand it to issue bonds by the ten millions on their face, have half of them squandered, and sell the other half at twenty-five cents in the dollar. The people cannot and it, they will not stand it. What will be the fate in this world and the next of the cruel men who put these ills upon us, we cannot tell.

Poor honest heard working North Carolinians, how sad is you lot!

Keep the Circulation Active.

A free and regular circulation of the blood is essential to health. It places the whole system in a state of active defence against all unwholesome influences, and is an especial safeguard against the inimical effect of sudden changes of temperature, and of damp and cold.

If proper attention were paid to this important fact, there would not only be a great decrease in the number of cases of stomach, bowel and renal complaints, but also in the number of deaths by consumption and other pulmonary diseases.

At this period of the year, when the dividing line which separates a genial from an inclement season has just been passed, a course of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS will be found of invaluable service in improving the condition of the vital fluid and gently stimulating its flow. Violent coughs and colds like intermittent fever, are the frequent effects of a chilly atmosphere upon a debilitated organization. Diseases of the kidneys often proceed from the same source. How essential it is, therefore, for persons of feeble constitution, to invigorate the vital organization at the commencement of Winter. Fortified by warm clothing without, and HOSTETTER'S BITTERS within, the frail and delicate may brave with impunity an amount of exposure and hardship which under other circumstances, would prostrate them on a bed of sickness. Let them consider this and be wise in time.

The affairs of Spain says the New York Evening Express, are rapidly approaching the only solution of which they seem at all capable, and to which they have been gravitating from the moment Prim, Serrano, and their co-conspirators usurped the government. We mean a civil war. Not a mere emeute, or series of emeutes; but a broad, comprehensive, destructive internecine war, in which the people will fight for what they deem to be liberty, and their opponents for pride, pomp and power. If Prim makes a coup d'etat (with the army completely at his disposal), in favor of the Duke of Genoa, it may pass off without precipitating immediately the eruption; but it will nevertheless hasten the inevitable conflict, without which there will be no peace, security, or stable state of things established in that miserable country.

THE BRAVEST OF THE BRAVE.—Admirers of the beautiful and rare will see on exhibition at Capt. Stanley's a silver vase which has a history. It was originally presented by the ladies of South Carolina to General Jackson, as a testimonial upon his victory at New Orleans. In his will Ex-President Jackson directed this vase to be given to the bravest South Carolian in the next war. It was confided, in 1858, to Governor Alston, to be disposed of according to the bequest.—Governor A. presented it to Captain Stanley, President of the Palmetto Association, as the representative of the regiment which, as a regiment, won the place designated by the testator—"the bravest of the brave"—where no one individual stood preeminent.—Columbia (S. C.) Phœnix.

A census just taken in South Carolina is said to show that the white population there has increased 3,723 and the colored 1,760 since the last United States census, in 1860. At that time there were 291,388 white persons and 412,320 colored persons, of whom something more than 28,000 were mulattoes. The new census shows plainly enough that the colored race is not dying out, though it has gained less than a third part as fast as the white race has.

A MAGNIFICENT

NORTH CAROLINA

PLANTATION FOR SALE.

THE PLANTATION KNOWN AS "OAKLAND," (formerly the property of Dr. Samuel Kerr,) situated in Rowan County, N. C., on the Lincolnton Road, 11 miles from Salisbury, and about 6 miles from China Grove Station on the North Carolina Railroad.

This Plantation is one of the most desirable in the State, and in its improvements unsurpassed. It contains 1880 Acres, one-half cleared; a large quantity of Meadow and Bottom Land, over 200 Acres under cover of a Mill Pond for fifty years. The residue is heavily timbered with splendid Oak and Hickory.

The Family Mansion contains Eleven Rooms; the Out-Buildings consists of Kitchen, Dairy, Ice-House, Smoke-House, Laborers' Houses, Barns, Stables and a Granary capable of accommodating from 15,000 to 20,000 bushels of Grain. In addition, about 150 yards from the house, is the Mill—Grist and Flour—with three runs of Stone; and in its near vicinity, Miller's house, Gin house, Blacksmith shop, and Cotton Screw.

It is believed a Canal might be dug from the Creek, supplying the pond, to run the Mill, and the Land beneath, of extraordinary fertility, given to the cultivation of large quantities of Grain or even Rice. The Mill Building, resting on a story of rock foundation, has two stories and a half of brick above, with a wall on the first story two feet thick, and could be converted into a factory. The Residence is well situated, and commands a fine water view.

Fully two-thirds, if not more, of the population of Rowan county is White.

Parties desiring to see the property can apply at Raleigh, N. C., to Mr. J. H. Ennis, at the North Carolina Bookstore; at Salisbury to Brown, Mock & Co., H. H. Helper, Esq., or Col. H. J. Long, Express Office; at Charlotte, to Wm. Phifer, Esq., Dr. E. Nye Hutchinson.

For Terms of Sale, &c., apply to Hon. J. H. Wilson, Charlotte, N. C.

DR. LAWRENCE'S

Highly Concentrated Compound

FLUID EXTRACT OF

Koskoo!

THE GREAT HEALTH RESTORER!

NOT A SECRET QUACK MEDICINE—FORMULA AROUND THE BOTTLE.

Prepared Solely by

J. J. LAWRENCE, M. D.

ORGANIC CHEMIST,

NORFOLK, VIRGINIA.

☞ Beware of Counterfeits. See that Dr. J. J. Lawrence, Chemist, Norfolk, Va., and the word KOSKOO, is BLOWN ON THE GLASS of each bottle. ☜

Koskoo is endorsed by the best physicians everywhere. Read the following from Dr. Tillery, a successful practitioner of many years standing in the Old North State:

Rocky Mount, Edgecombe Co., Sept. 19, 1869.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: I have used your Concentrated Fluid Extract of KOSKOO in my practice with the happiest results. I find it to be a powerful Liver Invigorator Blood Purifier and Nervous Tonic. In all diseases of the Liver, Scrofulous Syphilitic, Nervous Affections, it is a remedy of immense value; in fact, in almost every variety of Chronic Disease its use is indicated. Hoping you may meet with the success which you deserve as a manufacturer of reliable medicines, I am sir, with much respect your obedient servant,

R. C. TILLERY, M. D.

From Dr. Pentress, an accomplished and experienced physician.

Princess Anne Court House, Va Sept. 13, 1869.

J. J. LAWRENCE, M. D.—Dear Sir: I have carefully examined the formula, as well as the Therapeutic properties of your Koskoo compound, and have prescribed it in some stubborn cases of Chronic Liver Affections Dyspepsia, General Debility, &c., and always with the most gratifying results. I find it to be a splendid Tonic Alterative, and Hepatic combination, accomplishing its constitutional effects without the slightest debility; in fact it gives fine support to the General system while its alternative effects are being produced. I cheerfully recommend its use to the public.

Yours, truly; T. F. PENTRESS, M. D.

KOSKOO CURES SCROFULA IN ITS WORST FORMS.

From Mr. A. W. Mills, a prominent and well-known merchant of Norfolk, Va.:

No. 11, Main St., Norfolk, Va., Sept. 15, 1869.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: Your Koskoo has worked wonders in my family. My daughter has been a sufferer from Scrofula since childhood. She lost thirty-one pieces of bone from her ankle, several from her arm, besides having ulcers in several parts of the body. Whilst in this condition she commenced taking your Koskoo—IT ACTED LIKE A CHARM ON HER—UNDER ITS USE THE ULCERS GRADUALLY HEALED, AND HER GENERAL HEALTH GREATLY IMPROVED. It certainly saved her much suffering, and perhaps her life. I regard Koskoo a SPECIFIC for all scrofulous affections. Your Koskoo also cured my wife of dyspepsia, from which she suffered greatly. SHE IS NOW IN BETTER HEALTH THAN SHE HAS BEEN IN FIVE YEARS.

With the highest regards, I am gratefully yours, &c., A. W. MILLS.

KOSKOO, THE GREAT INVIGORATOR.—Read the following from the Rev. Joseph E. Martin, pastor of Wesley Chapel, Portsmouth, Va.:

"This is to certify that myself and wife have used Dr. LAWRENCE'S Koskoo, and can testify to its beneficial effects. Previous to taking it we were in a condition of debility—had no appetite, and suffered from sudden and often violent attacks of headache and nervousness. Two bottles of Koskoo has improved our general health, and we regard it as invaluable, and most cheerfully recommend it to all who have need of an invigorator. Yours, &c.

JOSEPH E. MARTIN.

KOSKOO!

CURES CHRONIC RHEUMATISM.

Norfolk, Virginia, September 7, 1869.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: My son has received so much benefit from your wonderful Koskoo that I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude. I had tried almost everything without benefit. I believe, in all sincerity, that your Koskoo is AN INFALLIBLE REMEDY for the disease from which he has suffered, and, so far as I can learn, has never failed. If you only knew the immense amount of suffering that he has undergone, then you could conceive the value of such a remedy as Koskoo—THAT SURELY CURES. The great amount of good it is now doing among us is inestimable.

With much gratitude, I am respectfully yours, &c., MRS. H. E. A. NELSON.

Dr. Lawrence—Dear Sir: Having been treated by several skilful physicians for Dyspepsia, Chronic Disease of Kidneys, General Debility, &c., without benefit, as a last resort I commenced the use of your Koskoo, and am pleased to say that under its use my health has been entirely restored

I am, sir, with much respect your obedient servant, O. B. MEARS.

No. 5 Market St., Norfolk, Va., July 6, 1869.

Pacific, Franklin Co., N. C., Sept. 11, 1869.

This is to certify that for a long time I suffered very much from inaction of the liver and constipation of the bowels and tried several remedies, but received no benefit until I commenced taking Koskoo. I took the medicine about one month, and I was completely cured and have remained well. I know of several cures made by Koskoo, and can cordially recommend it as a good medicine. JOHN H. BAKER.

From Mr. Womble, a prominent hardware merchant of Norfolk:

No. 13 MARKET SQUARE, Norfolk, Va., Oct. 25, 1869

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: To the large number of testimonials which you offer of the great efficacy of your Koskoo, I take pleasure in adding my own. I suffered greatly with Nervous Debility, Headache, Loss of Appetite, &c. Two bottles of KOSKOO RESTORED ME TO HEALTH. Yours, truly, J. H. WOMBLE.

From Rev. W. H. Christian, Pastor Dinwiddie Street Methodist Church:

PORTSMOUTH, Va., October 26, 1869.

This is to certify that I know Dr. Lawrence well. He is a gentleman of cultivation, and worthy the fullest confidence. I have used his "Koskoo" with advantage to myself, and have adopted its use in my family in cases of nervous debility and depression. W. H. CHRISTIAN.

From Rev. C. H. WILEY formerly State Supt. of Education.

BRISTOL, TENN., Oct. 14, 1869.

I had seen by the papers what had been done by the Board of Education in North Carolina and was glad. I had ample reasons for my former recommendations in the use on the books in our schools.

These Books are Used by the Best Schools in the State.

Late Testimonials in Brief.

It affords me great pleasure to bestow on them my heartiest commendation. They are vastly superior to any other books of the kind I have yet seen.—W. H. WEAVER, Prin. Chas. and Math. School, Elizabeth City, Oct. 25, 1869.

Send me ten Davies' Intellectual Arithmetics for introduction. They are superior to any I have seen.—W. F. EGGLESTON, Mount Olive, Oct. 20, 1869.

I intend using the same books in my school as those used in the Common Schools. * * I am already using Monteith's Geographies.—JOHN D. JOHNSON, Yadkinville, Sept. 28, 1869.

I am and have ever been an earnest advocate of uniformity in school books. The Board recommendations—Arithmetics and Geographies—are the best that could have been made.—H. H. SMITH, Lincolnton, Sept. 28th, 1869.

Because these books are adopted by the State Board, as well as for the merits of the books themselves, we wish to introduce them, and use them exclusively in our school.—Rev. S. C. ALEXANDER, Charlotte, Oct. 11, 1869.

Steele's "Nat. Philosophy" received. Am struck with its superiority to the other in many respects. As a class is waiting, substitute in my order Steele's Philosophy for first introduction.—G. W. JARVIS, Wilmington, Oct. 15, 1869.

Davies' Mathematics was adopted by me in 1858, and up to this time I have examined no work superior to them. I have examined McNally's Geography and Peck's Gaso's Natural Philosophy. I consider them most excellent works and shall put them into my boys' hands at the earliest period.—J. E. DUDLEY, Prin. Male Academy Warrenton.

It is my purpose to introduce Monteith's (No. 4) into my school. I give it the preference for the information which it gives on the subject of Physical Geography. The maps and questions in both works (Monteith and McNally) seem to me to be admirable.—Rev. ALBERT SMEDES, D. D. Rector of St. Mary's, Raleigh.

The system of Geography—Monteith and McNally—I am well pleased with.—Rev. WM. S. LACY, Raleigh.

Davies' Arithmetics, Monteith's Geographies and the National Readers are too well known to require a word from me. Monteith and Davies are the best that I am acquainted with.—Prof. FRANK VAUGHAN, Elizabeth City, Oct. 11, 1869.

I have waited patiently for the adoption by the Board of Education of this State of the books to be used in the public schools, and am much pleased to find that so many have been selected from the National Series.—Rev. W. L. MILLER, Charlotte, Oct. 1, 1869.

Am much pleased with both the Spellers and all the readers; and as to the Series of Geographies, I have long used no others when these could be obtained.—Dr. WM. H. HARRIS, Prin. High School, Snow Hill.

The introduction of so much valuable matter on the subjects of Physical Geography and Geology, and in a form so simple and intelligible makes it, (Monteith's Intermediate Geography) in my judgment, a charming school book.—Col. WM. BINGHAM, Prin. Bingham School.

I design introducing McNally's Geography and Davies' University Arithmetic.—Dr. CLOSS, Prin. Durham Academy.

Will introduce the University Arithmetic next term. An admirable work.—M. L. LITTLE, Prin. Pleasant Hill Seminary, Newton.

Monteith's Geographies are excellent works, and I shall introduce them into my school.—BRINCKLOE IVEY, Prin. Auburn Academy.

The superior and durable style of binding of your works is a very great recommendation—one with which I have long been favorably impressed.—Prof. WM. A. GUERRANT, late Hillsboro' Military Academy.

I have introduced your National Series of Readers. We find them to be excellent, just suited to our purpose. With Davies' Mathematical Series we have been long familiar, and can find no good reason for changing them.—In the Primary Department we have Monteith's Geographies.—Rev. G. D. BURNHEIM, Prin. Female Seminary, Mount Pleasant.

The National Series of Readers and Spellers are the best with which I am acquainted. I shall henceforth use no others in my school. I use Davies. I consider his works incomparably superior in many respects. Monteith's Series afford a gradual but thorough and systematic progression.—Prof. JOS. H. FOY, President Statesburg Scientific High School.

I regard Monteith's Physical and Intermediate Geography as one of the best books of its kind. It has several points of superiority over most primary Geographies; Geography is here treated from the only true and rational standpoint, viz: that of Geology and Physical Geography.—Prof. W. C. KERR, state Geologist of North Carolina.

Mr. Taylor Johnson, Olive's Chapel, has introduced the National Readers, Monteith's Geographies, Davies Arithmetics, Clark's Grammars, etc.; Mr. John Franks, Grove P. O., has introduced the National Series throughout; Mr. W. A. Brabon, New Hill P. O., uses the National Series throughout; Mr. Adolphus Rogers, Green Level P. O., uses the National Readers, Cooper, Monteith's Geographies, and York's Grammar; Mrs. Emma Vaughan, Cary P. O., uses the National Series; Mr. H. C. Olive, New Hill P. O., introduced Monteith's Geographies. There are now at least 200 pupils in Wake and Chatham counties who are daily using the National series of books, within my knowledge.—Prof. W. H. MASSEY, Cheshire county, Sept. 14, 1869.

I am glad to learn that some of your books are to be introduced into our State Schools.—Prof. J. M. M. CALDWELL, Greensboro' High School, Oct. 23, 1869.

Distinguished Editors and Critics Praise Them.

The Series must prove acceptable. The structure of language is beautifully exhibited.—Fayetteville Presbyterian.

This firm will allow no competition in the price of books published by them which are among the best in the State.—Statesville American, 1868.

Have a reputation for merit unsurpassed.—Statesville American, 1869.

Peculiarly adapted to supply the wants we have long felt.—Greensboro' Patriot.

Have acknowledged superiority by the most competent judges.—Western Sentinel.

Davies is excellent in the first degree.—Wadesboro Argus.

Are excelled by none of the many used, and they are superior to most of them.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

When we examine the bright pages of the National series, and think how we groped along the dry and unmeaning "task" of our boyhood, we are constrained to be envious of the happy pupils of the present.—Wilmington Post.

The National Series has attained probably a higher reputation than any other complete series of School Books now in existence.—Wilmington Herald.
